

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE*The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St John the Evangelist, Bush End

1. Your personal data – what is it? Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we? The PCC of St John the Evangelist, Bush End is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data? The PCC of St John the Evangelist, Bush End complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public within this ecclesiastical parish;
- To administer membership records (e.g., electoral roll; church-work groups);
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at St John the Evangelist, Bush End and the Six Villages MMU;
- To process gift aid applications

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events.

- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes);
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data Your personal data will be treated as confidential and will only be shared with other members of St John the Evangelist, Bush End Church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with St John the Evangelist, Bush End Church. We will share your data with third parties outside the parish only with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?<sup>1</sup> We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide "Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records" which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link]. Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- the right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of St John the Evangelist, Bush End, holds about you;
